HOW TO GET TMS TREATMENT IN MYRTLE BEACH

- 1 Talk to Your VA Primary Care Doctor
Share how you're feeling and ask about TMS treatment available locally in Myrtle Beach.
- 2 Request a Referral to a VA Psychiatrist
If TMS sounds like a good fit, your doctor will refer you to a VA psychiatrist for next steps.
- 3 Ask for Local Treatment in Myrtle Beach
Let the psychiatrist know you'd prefer treatment at Living Water Mental Health BRAIN Treatment Center with Dr. Owen S. Muir—we're part of the VA Community Care Network and located right here in Myrtle Beach.

We know that sometimes referrals at the VA can take longer than expected. If you don't receive your referral in a timely manner, call the VA in Charleston directly and advocate for a quicker turnaround. Their phone number is 843-577-5011.
